Kapunda Rifle Club. 9th February. A good field of 23 competitors vied for the Westlake Trophy of Saturday, taking advantage of the cooler conditions. Right wind however kept confidence in check and was variable enough to frustrate almost all. Several notable scores emerged including a 1st round possible from J Hoerisch. Chris Papageorgiou felt that too much damage was being done to the centres of our smallest targets and decided to put them away early. Unfortunately for Chris he was forced to re-instate them for the completion of proceedings. The Captain was reminded to only send Chris to the butts for the last shift. Next week, 700 yards, AutoPro Kapunda Trophy.
