Shooters usually say that the Bureau of Meteorology finds it hard to get the weather correct but Saturday proved the exception to the rule. Eleven members took to the field and found the intermittent rain and the variable and fluctuating wind conditions were not conducive to posting good scores. However, some of the members found good patches of weather and scored well where others were less fortunate. The R Koehler Memorial Trophy (800 yards) was won by David Clarke who used just 30% of his handicap and scored the only possible for the day. David's possible was also the first shot in competition on our new electronic scoring system, which again performed well. Members are becoming more adept in their operation each week. F/Standard was won by Jim Taylor, F/Open Jerome Ziersch, and FT/R Steve Smithson. Snipers: T/R Les Williams, F/Std Peter Dayman, F/Open Jerome Ziersch and FT/R Steven Smithson. Next week's competition is the Ziersch Custom Rifle Trophy and will be shot from 800 yards. Please be early and help set the flags and be ready to commence at 13:00 hours.
