The N Tamke Memorial Trophy (incorporating Stage 6 of the Light Aggregate Trophy) was shot on a cold winters' day when the sun seemed to be spending most of its time behind threatening storm clouds. However, it did not deter 18 members from competing in the 900 yard event and the electronic targets proved to be a boon, performing flawlessly throughout the day. Moderate fluctuating right wind did not prevent some very good scores, and three possibles were recorded; T/R Les Williams 50.1, FT/R Chris Papageorgiou 60.3 and FO Trevor Otto 60.4. Trevor Otto went on to win the day using only 13.3% of his handicap and only dropped 1 point. Top Off Rifle; T/R Les Williams - 97.05, F/S Barry Kalleske - 117.4, F/O Trevor Otto - 119.10. Snipers were T/R John Hoerisch 20.1, F/S Chris Papageorgiou, 24.2, F/O T Otto, 23.2. Next week will see us shooting from 900 yards again to compete for the Peter Larsen Trophy so please be early to help with the setting up of the targets and flags.
