Kapunda Rifle Club. Overcast skies and intermittent rain failed to stop sixteen members and one visitor competing for the Eddy Kanik Trophy which was shot from the 500 yard mound. Umbrellas abounded and some members even adjourned to their cars to watch the results on their own tablets or phones. However, despite Night Force scoped fogging up and the target being obscured by rain it was Chris Papageorgiou that went on to win the day by using only 22.2% of his handicap, also scoring a 60.6 on the way. Other possibles went to Trevor Otto 60.6, Adam Pohl 60.3 and Barry Kalleske 60.5. Top off rifle: TR: John Hoerisch 98.12, FS: Chris Papageorgiou 119.11, FO: Trevor Otto 118.9 and FTR: Adam Pohl 117.7. Snipers: TR: John Hoerisch 19.2, FS: Eddy Kanik 22.2, FO: Trevor Otto 20.0 and FTR: M Lagana 24. A reminder that next week is the beginning of the Findlay Shield competition and members that have been selected to shoot are asked to be at the range early. Club members that have not been selected can also shoot on the day on a separate target so please come along.
