Exuberance abounded as twenty members and one visitor prepared themselves to shoot for the Lagana Brothers Trophy on a day that was next to perfect. The wind (the curse of Kapunda) rolled in from the north at a manageable fifteen miles per hour with only mild deviations as it swung up and down the range. The quite achiever on the day was Andy Small who went on to win the Lagana Trophy only using 40.68% of his handicap narrowly holding out Jim Taylor who used 42.86% of his handicap. Only two possibles were posted for the day: Eddy Kanik 60.6 and Peter Dayman 60.3. Next week will see members shooting for the Kings Mechanical Trophy from the 600 yard mound which is also in preparation for the following week when we will be shooting the Findlay Shield from the same distance.
