Mild conditions greeted the fourteen members that gathered to compete for the B and K Kalleske Trophy, but all was not what it appeared and it was soon apparent that it was to be a difficult day with the winds fluctuating in both speed and direction and the temperature increasing as the day progressed. But it was the last shooter of the day, Jim Taylor, that scored the only possible (60.8) and went going on to win the Handicap Trophy, Top off Rifle and also the Sniper in the F/O Class. He was seen looking at his recorded possible and mildly cursing the two sixes that he posted, so near and yet so far. Next Saturday Kapunda RC will be competing against the Murray Bridge Rifle Club for the Excel Shield at Kapunda and all our members are encouraged to attend and shoot on the day. A sausage sizzle will be available and an email will be sent to members through the week giving more particulars.
