The R Koehler Memorial Trophy was contested by 17 members in conditions that continued to improve as the day progressed. It was also the first day that the Club used all of their five electronic targets in preparation for our Open Prize Meeting next Sunday. There were three possible posted on the day and a few very close non-possibles 😞, however the Trophy was won by John Hoerisch with a very commendable 99.7 and only using 10.5% of his handicap. Leaders in their discipline: T/R: John Hoerisch, F/S: Chris Papageorgiou, F/O: Jim Taylor and Matthew Lagana in F/TR.

Next Saturday is a working bee to ensure that the mounds, club house and other areas of the range are in good condition.
