Fifteen competitors attended to compete for the Neldner Memorial Trophy 900 Yards. Overcast but calm conditions were kind to those competing at the Club's second longest range, and the results reflected this with most of the field using less than half of their handicap. Outstanding shooting by Barry Kalleske with a double possible saw him take the Trophy, and a number of other possibles from Fred Guyatt, Tim Andrews and Jim Taylor highlighted the quality of the shooting. Next week the Williams Trophy at 1000 yards.
