Kapunda Rifle Club. Twenty members competed for the Adam Pohl Trophy at 600 yards, in blustery right wind conditions, with little let up the whole afternoon. A few good scores emerged and Eddie Kanik, with the only possible took the Trophy, using 28.6% of handicap. We were joined by seven visitors, three of a larger group who attended particularly to see how our electronic scoring system operated, together with Chris Williams, a regular visitor. The remaining three Captain's guests received enthusiastic instruction on 2 of the disciplines shot at the Club. Next week. The Barrie Trophy at 700 yards.
